Part II, Section C, line 17a, Facts and Circumstances Test:

Via Foundation, Inc. meets the 10% public support requirement, and has actually been over 30% in all periods, being just short of the 33.33% requirement in the last two years. It is anticipated that the Organization will meet the requirement again in the upcoming year. The mission of Via Foundation, Inc. is to provide resources to grow and sustain services for people with disabilities offered by Via of the Lehigh Valley. As described in the mission, the programming of the organization is for the ultimate benefit of general members of the public with disabilities, through various programs conducted on an ongoing basis by Via of the Lehigh Valley, Inc. Via Foundation, Inc., through shared staff with its related organization, Via of the Lehigh Valley, Inc., has development personnel who actively work to solicit contributions. Additionally, the Organization functions as a public charity in form and substance. Via Foundation, Inc. has a seven-member board of directors, who are unrelated, independent members of the community with diverse backgrounds, skill sets, and perspectives. The Organization operates under by-laws that are in accordance with not-for-profit corporation standards. The Board has regularly scheduled meetings with contemporaneously documented minutes supporting discussions related to the organization, its mission, and fundraising efforts. It is also important to note that the public support is low as a percentage because most of its support comes from investment income from its investments that are being held particularly for the purpose of providing long term support, similar to endowment funds. The funds held in the investment accounts which are generating investment income were previously received by members of the general public, and the sole purpose for holding the funds in investment

Part V, line 4:

Endowment Income Supports General Operations of the Organization.

Part X, Line 2:

Via Foundation, Inc. is a not-for-profit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The accounting standard for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Organization may recognize the tax benefits from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Organization and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for fiscal year 2022 and 2021.

The Organization files Federal Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Tax, with the United States Internal Revenue Service.
